1. Project(s) Background

The United Nations Office for Project Services (UNOPS) is active in over 100 countries worldwide, in various stages of conflict, post conflict and development environment. It is the United Nations (UN’s) central resource for sustainable project management, sustainable infrastructure and sustainable procurement with an emphasis of capacity building as outlined in UNOPS Strategic Plan 2014-2017.

Through a wide variety of worldwide tested best practices, UNOPS has the ability to customize methodologies and implement different development programmes in accordance with the local and national structures. It uses flexible, reliable and well tested procedures and has world class financial and administrative practices.

UNOPS provides strong administrative and financial services and leads both the UN system and most international organizations in ensuring transparency and in management and oversight policies, all beneficial to local and national institutions. It is ISO 9001 and Chartered Institute of Purchasing and Supply (CIPS) certified and is an active member of the International Aid Transparency Initiative (IATI) which makes information about aid spending easier to find, compare and to use; it introduced international accounting standards (IPSAS); and it has project managers and key staff who are all required to be certified in Projects in a Controlled Environment - PRINCE 2.

UNOPS established the Serbia Project Centre (UNOPS Serbia) in Belgrade in April 2013, with a mandate to act as a service provider to its partners - the Government, the Government institutions, local self-governments, regional development agencies and civil society organizations – and support them to expand their own capacities and outreach.
